MANN PACKING ANNOUNCES NEW HIRES IN INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

SALINAS, CA – September 18, 2017 – Mann Packing announced the hiring of Sylvia Le and Ben Marrow to the positions of business applications manager and desktop support technician, respectively.

Le will assume the newly-created role of business applications manager where she will lead a team of analysts with the goal of developing applications that support company goals. She previously worked for Mann Packing from 2011-2014 and most recently worked with Mann's as a consultant. Le brings more than 17 years of experience to the job and has supported JD Edwards business projects in her last two positions.

Marrow joins Mann's IT team in the role of desktop support technician where he will provide technical support and troubleshooting services to end-users for both computer hardware and software. He comes to the company from Liberty Technical Solutions where he worked as a technician since 2011. Marrow earned his B.S. in Information Technology Service Management from Missouri State University.
